37th Tokyo Motor Show – Passenger Cars & Motorcycles (2003) Handling of lost children, designated hospital, and requests for ambulances

Dear Exhibitors:

1. General Information & Service Center

The General Information & Service Center receives requests for announcements regarding lost children, cares for lost children until their guardians are located, and offers a message board for visitor communications.

- 1) Hours of Operations: Services available at all times while the exhibition grounds are open, for the duration of the Show.
- 2) Location: Rendezvous Square.

2. First Aid Station and Designated Hospital

Persons suffering from illness or injury within the exhibition grounds can receive first aid treatment and other services at the First Aid Station (Central and South). The Narashino Daiichi Hospital has also been asked to provide emergency response as the Tokyo Motor Show designated hospital.

Narashino Daiichi Hospital (Tokyo Motor Show designated hospital) Address: 5-5-25 Tsudanuma, Narashino City TEL: 047-454-1511 (Switchboard)

3. Requesting ambulance services

In the event of illness or injury requiring ambulance services, please contact the Secretariat Office, and advise the following:

- Location, condition, sex, and age of the person involved
- Booth name and name of person in charge

Secretariat Office: TEL: 043-269-7711

*Please also contact the Secretariat Headquarters in the event that an exhibitor calls 119 (emergency services) directly.

Sincerely yours,
